Megan:

Sounds like you need the contractor to get moving on this asap, so I've scheduled a meeting with them for today. Chris' schedule says he's in the office, but he's sending an away message. Karrie-Jo's schedule says she's out of the office. We can have another call that includes them next week, if necessary, but I'm presuming you can provide them enough information about what you want that they can get started, or at least staff up for this. Forward the scheduler to anyone else you want to include.
